

SAMPLE LETTER #2

Dear _____,

It has been my privilege to be selected by Sports Ambassadors to participate on a very special team.

As you may know, OC International, through their Sports Ambassadors ministry, has proven that a most effective way to reach hard-to-reach people with the Gospel is through sporting events. Many people will attend a sporting event but won't enter the door of a church.

The team I am going with is special because we will be going to a country that is very open to the Gospel message. Most Sports Ambassadors teams go out for a three-week period during the summer. This team is going at the special request of OC International's field team in the month of _____.

I'm thankful God has given me the ability to play basketball, and now He is opening the door for me to use this gift for His glory.

As a short-term sports missionary, I need financial support. I am trusting God for a very special team of people who will join with me, not only financially but also in prayer. With your commitment to pray and to support me, I'll commit myself to represent the Lord, you and my country the very best I can. I will also commit to report back to you what the Lord is doing through you and me as a team.

If you are excited about what God is doing through me and want to join with me, please complete the commitment at the bottom and return it to Sports Ambassadors.

In His service,

(Your name)

I am excited about this opportunity the Lord is giving _____ to use his/her God-given talent as a short-term missionary. I will pray for him/her and financially stand with him/her for a total of:
